

Do you own an older home or business? Do you want to preserve your property's original charm and character? Would you like to learn the skills of wood window restoration and weatherization? Are you concerned about the energy efficiency of your old wood windows? If you answered yes to any of these questions, then the Topeka Landmarks Commission invites you to learn how to maintain and restore your old historic wooden windows at our

Historic Wood Window Restoration Workshop.

The City of Topeka has invited Bob Yapp, founder of the Belvedere School for Historic Preservation, to lead a 3-day, hands-on wood window restoration workshop to teach historic property owners and skilled contractors the best practices of window restoration techniques. All participants will learn the essential methods and practices of window restoration by restoring historic wooden windows. The workshop will take place in the old
