Old Business.

- Welcoming Week. Ernestor De La Rosa discussed initiatives below.
 - Taste of Topeka Festival. This event was originally scheduled to take place in Everygy Plaza on Sunday, September 17. Ernestor shared that we have two organizations that can sponsor the event for $250 each. The DEI office has reached out to other potential sponsors and researched grant opportunities, but there is not enough time to get full funding for this event. Ernestor's recommendation is to postpone the event until the fall of 2024 and start planning for the event early next year. The Commission discussed other potential events and ways to advertise the HRC on social media. After discussion, the consensus of the Commission is to postpone the Taste of Topeka Festival to 2024.
 - Videos. Ernestor shared that the City will not be able to produce videos for Welcoming Week due to staffing issues.
 - Newcomers Academy. Ernestor shared that the DEI office has been hosting the 8-week Newcomers Academy program for Ukrainian Refugees since July 26. The program has been well received and the graduation will be on September 12 at the Governing Body Meeting. Commissioners were invited to attend future sessions.
